6.04.01 Definitions

Animal shall mean any dog, cat or domesticated wild creature, however, livestock maintained on a farm is exempt.

At large shall be construed to mean not under the control of the owner or a member of his immediate family by fencing, leash, cord, chain or other physical restraining device.

Livestock shall include horses, cows, sheep, pigs, and other non-domesticated creatures kept/maintained by a person within the city.

Owner shall mean an individual, partnership, firm or corporation or association which

- A. Professes to own, in the common sense definition, a particular animal or animals;

- B. Exercises primary control and dominion over a particular animal or animals, or
- C. Keeps or owns or occupies real estate which serves as a principal abode or shelter for a particular animal. Presence of an implanted chip-seed, a numbered license on the collar or body of a particular animal registered to an owner, shall be prima facie evidence of ownership.

Person shall mean any natural person, firm, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated association or other legal entity. (Ord. No. 303, Sec. 1.)

6.04.02 Prohibited conduct

- A. It shall be unlawful for the owner or person having charge of any dog to permit or allow such dog to run at large within the corporate limits of the city of Greenland, Arkansas, at any time.
- B. It shall be unlawful for any person to carry out any inhumane treatment against any animal. This shall include the restraint of an animal in such a way as to deny the animal access to water, food and shelter.
- C. It shall be unlawful for any owner or person to keep or harbor any animal which by loud frequent or habitual barking, howling, yelping or other noise or actions disturbs any persons or neighborhood within the corporate limits of the city of

6.04.03 Rabies vaccination/confinement

- A. All animals in the city shall have current vaccinations against rabies by a veterinarian licensed by the state. Upon request by a police officer or Animal Control Officer, the owner of every such animal shall provide proof that the rabies vaccination is current. It shall be unlawful for any person or owner to possess any animal above the age of six (6) months without having such animal vaccinated for rabies, provided that there shall be no prosecution of such owner unless the animal shall have been owned or kept within the city limits for fifteen (15) days.
- B. Upon the request of any person who has been bitten by a dog or other animal within the corporate limits of the city (or by a parent or legal guardian of a person so bitten who is under a disability), the city police officer shall take such dog or animal, or a plurality of same if they are reasonably suspected of the biting, into custody and turn such animal or animals over to the county for quarantine as provided by law. The owner of such animal shall be liable for all expenses of the quarantine/confinement.

- C. Any animal having rabies or symptoms thereof, or suspected of having rabies, or which has been exposed to rabies shall be immediately released by the owner or custodian of such animal to the city police officer who shall confine such dog or animal in quarantine as provided for above.
- D. When the licensed veterinarian supervising the quarantine of any dog or other animal quarantined under this section shall issue his certificate declaring the animal to be free of rabies, the owner of such dog or other animal may retake custody of it upon payment to such veterinarian for his customary and reasonable fees and charges for impounding, boarding, lodging, testing and observation; except a person who is bitten by an animal while trespassing on the premises of the owner or keeper of said animal shall pay all customary and reasonable charges and fees resulting from his request to have said animal confined and quarantined.
- E. If any dog or other animal confined under this provision is not reclaimed by its owner within five (5) days of having turned over to the county, the animal shall be forfeited to the county. If the owner of the animal does not retake the animal after such confinement and the veterinarian's certificate, and the city is required to pay the expenses of such, then the city may pursue reimbursement from the owner either as restitution in any criminal proceeding, or by bringing a civil action against the owner. (Ord. No. 303, Sec. 3)

6.04.04 Vicious dogs

- A. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, keep or harbor within the corporate limits of the city any vicious dog unless said dog is muzzled or confined in a substantial enclosure or tied in such a manner that it cannot bite mail carriers, delivery men, meter readers or other licensees or invitees coming on the premises. Any vicious dog found outside the above specified locations may be seized or destroyed pursuant to the procedure set out in this ordinance.
- B. For the purpose of this section, a vicious dog is hereby defined to be a dog which has a disposition to bite humans and any dog which has bitten or attempted to bite any person within the twelve (12) months immediately past; however, the fact that a dog has bitten or attempted to bite some person when that person was teasing or molesting said dog shall not cause that dog to be considered a vicious dog within the sense of this section.
- C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to any dog trained and used as a guard dog when appropriately confined/restrained. (Ord. No. 303, Sec. 4)

6.04.05 Impoundment

- A. Greenland police officers, or their designee are authorized to take into custody any dog or animal found running at large within the corporate limits of the city in violation of the terms and provisions of this ordinance and to impound the same in the facility under contract with the city. Humane animal traps or tranquilizers may be used.
- B. Five (5) days after any animal has been impounded, the animal shall be forfeited to the county. For the purpose of this section, the day of taking up shall be counted as the first day of the impoundment period herein provided.
- C. The Greenland Police Department or its designee shall make reasonable attempts to notify/locate the owner of any animal picked up and impounded to include posting pictures/description on the city website and provide notice of when the animal shall be forfeited to the county.
- D. The owner of an impounded dog or other animal may, at any time before the animal is destroyed, claim the animal upon payment of the costs of impoundment which shall include the per animal fee charged the city for turning the animal into the facility. In addition to the other charges for impoundment, there shall be a charge of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each subsequent pickup of the same animal within a calendar year. In addition, the owner shall pay the current daily charge for the cost of keeping the animal for the number of days of impoundment and the cost if needed for vaccination. (Ord. No. 303, Sec. 5)

6.04.06 Enforcement

- A. The members of the City Police Department are authorized to issue citations ordering persons suspected of violating any portion of this chapter to appear in court.
- B. City police officers shall make a reasonable effort to catch and identify animals found running at large. If the animal cannot be caught or cannot be identified, a city police officer or such other persons as may be appointed by the City Council shall, in the most humane manner practicable in the circumstances, destroy the animal.
- C. It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere with or attempt to prevent a city police officer or other authorized persons, from seizing and impounding any animal which is authorized to be impounded under the provisions of this ordinance.

- D. Any person violating any provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per occurrence, per animal. (Ord. No. 303, Sec. 6)
